THE "AMBRICAN PARMER"

A sixteen-page Agricultural Magazine, published by E. A. K. Hackett, at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and which is rapidly taking rank as one of the leading Agricultural publications of the country. It is devoted exclusively to the interests of the Farmer, Stock Breeder, Dairyman, Gardener, and their household, and every species of industry conneced with that great portion of the people of the world, the Farmers. The subscription price is One Dollar per Year. Farmers can not well get along without it. It puts new ideas into their minds. It teaches them how to farm with profit to themselves. It makes the home hapy, the young folks cheerful, the growler contented, the downcast happy, and the demagogue
